

POLS 1101

Examination of the institutions and processes of American government and Georgia State government. Global comparisons are made between the governments of the U.S. and other modern nation-states.

Skills Developed

Organizational organizing the history of american goverment and how it relates to the world through organized note taking.